THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. During the national conference on Chinese Communist Party organization in Peiping in April, LIU Shao-ch'i urged an organizational overhaul to remedy the general decline in the quality of members of the Party. Attention should be focused on basic Party units and individual members. Party authorities were ordered to start the overhaul on 1 July; local Party units are to formulate detailed plans for the next six months, which are to be implemented by December 1953.
2. Preliminary steps include a series of local conferences, to transmit Party decisions on the overhaul; such as, improvement of Party schools, the selection of areas as models for testing purposes, and completion of annual screening of high-level members.
